Interactive Mystery Dinner Theatre

■ Laughter in the First Degree

There's something for everyone with interactive mystery dinner theater! What's the secret? Start with five intriguing characters and stir in an unfortunate "accident! Add a little romance, some singing, top it off with lots of audience participation, and what you get is plenty of laughter.

Why is it so entertaining? There's a puzzle to be solved and a very real chance that it will be solved.

First, audience members will find useful background information about each character in the show program, and discover individual clues planted at their table. These can be exchanged with other tables to try and gather the best list!!

Our five soon-to-be suspects will mingle with the audience before the show dropping hints and answering questions.

Then the action begins! By watching and listening closely as the story unfolds, participants collect as much evidence as they can.

They are then asked to "finger" the suspect they think is guilty and explain their "deductions" on individual detective cards.

When all accusations are made, the suspect returns to complete the show and reveal the true culprit! The awards ceremony follows immediately, with prizes awarded to the best (and worst!) guesses.

Solve the mystery and enjoy the show!
