Battle of the Sexes

Honorable Mention

■ RUTHIE

THEN

One of triplets and the only native born Hawaiian in the cast, Ruthie was raised in a foster home by a strict Philipino family. According to Ruthie, her foster parents favored their biological children and discouraged Ruthie from educating herself. During high school, she enrolled in an "Upward Bound" program that boosted her self-esteem. After high school, she left her foster family and did not contact them again until she enrolled at Rutgers University. Ruthie's goal is to run her own magazine. She has won awards for her freestyle rapping and performs spoken word poetry. She is bisexual and has a girlfriend, Jess, who lives near Honolulu.

NOW

RUTHIE graduated from Rutgers University and appeared on MTV's Say What?, Karaoke, TRL and Webriot. She continues to appear at speaking engagements around the country and relocated to Los Angeles to work on an album with friend Frieda Simone. Ruthie is a great Alcohol Awareness and Diversity Speaker.

■ JULIE

THEN

Julie hasn't been too lucky with boyfriends - she develops crushes easily, focusing her attention on younger guys, but nothing ever seems to last. She's currently a student at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. This is the farthest this 21 year old has been from her observant Mormon family in Delafield, Wisconsin. Although wide-eyed and curious about the world, she's seen very little. Her flight to California for the semi-final casting round was only her second time on an airplane. Although Julie has lived a remarkably sheltered life, she's fiercely independent. On first observation, it would be easy to mistake her for a naive, even close-minded person. In fact, she is a courageous and passionate woman on the verge of discovering her own authority. She remains a committed Mormon and plans to attend church every Sunday.

NOW

JULIE has little time to worry about being suspended from Brigham Young University because she keeps busy speaking at colleges across the country, along with co-hosting a cable show about computers and new media and appearing on television shows like Larry King Live, The View and Politically Incorrect. She makes her home in Wisconsin and Huntington Beach, California.

■ SYRUS

THEN

At the age of 25, Syrus, who hails from Santa Monica, California, is a man in pursuit of happiness. He attended the university of Hawaii on a basketball scholarship, majored in communications and coached youth basketball. When asked about his personal goals, Syrus says that he wants to be known as a good person and - more importantly - to be loved by many.

NOW

SYRUS is still very active with speaking engagements. Some people refer to him as "The Great Story Teller". He travels all over the country and he is still one of the most recognizable cast members. He really knows how to get the crowd to interact at his events and he is very personable.
